CAP. XXXI.

An Act for repealing the Duties payable upon Glaſs Beads, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof; and for allowing the ſame Drawbacks on the exportation of refined Borax and Camphire, which are allowed on the Exportation of unrefined Borax and Camphire; and for preventing the fraudulent Exportation of Britiſh and Iriſh Linens, for the ſake of the Bounty allowed by an Act made in the fifteenth and ſixteenth Years of his preſent Majeſty's Reign; and for explaining and amending the ſaid Act, as to the Perſons who are to receive the ſaid Bounty.

4 & 5 W. & M. c. 5.

'WHEREAS by ſeveral Acts of Parliament now in Force, ſeveral Duties are payable upon the 'Importation of Great Bugle and Glaſs Beads: And whereas it is very difficult for the Officers of 'his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, and Dealers in the ſaid Commodities, to diſtinguiſh the Difference between 'Great Bugle and Glaſs Beads, on the Importation thereof: And whereas the Duties on Glaſs Beads are 'much lower than the Duties on Great Bugle, which is a great Temptation to unfair Traders to deceive 'the Officers, to the great Diſadvantage of the Revenue, and Diſcouragement of the fair Merchants: 'And whereas ſuch evil Practice enables the unfair Traders to underſell not only the fair Merchants, but 'likewiſe to underſell ſuch of the Poor Inhabitants of this Kingdom, who are now employed in the ma- 'king, colouring and manufacturing of Glaſs Beads:' For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Duties on Glaſs Beads, which ſhall be imported from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-four, ſhall ceaſe and determine; and in lieu thereof there ſhall, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, be paid to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for all Glaſs Beads imported into Great Britain, whether plain or manufactured, mixed or coloured, the ſame Subſidies, Impoſitions and Duties as are now payable for Great Bugles imported; and that the ſame be raiſed, levied, recovered and paid by ſuch Rates, Means and Methods, with the like Diſcounts and Allowances on Importation, and the ſame Drawbacks on Exportation, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, and be applicable to the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes, as the Duties on Great Bugles are now raiſed, levied, recovered, paid and applied.

The old Duty on Glaſs Beads repealed, and the new Duty to be the ſame as is paid for Great Bugles; and to be applied to the ſame Uſes.

II. Provided nevertheleſs, and it is hereby declared, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, ſhall not in any wiſe be conſtrued or underſtood to extend to leſſen or alter the Rates or Duties on Small or Seed Bugle, which are to remain and be in the ſame Manner as they are now rated and paid.

Duties on Seed Bugle not to be alter'd.

'III. And whereas large Quantities of Borax unrefined, commonly called Tincall, and of Camphire 'unrefined, are frequently imported, both which are generally ſhipt in the ſame unrefined Condition, 'and a Drawback paid on Exportation thereof: And whereas the ſaid Commodities when refined in Great 'Britain, are not entitled, by the Laws in being, to any Drawback, although they are ſubject to Waſte 'and Loſs of Weight in refining them here, and are therefore exported Abroad, and refined in foreign 'Countries, to the Prejudice of the Revenue and the Commerce of this Kingdom:' For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-four, all Borax, and all Camphire which ſhall be refined in Great Britain, upon Oath being firſt made by the Refiner or Refiners thereof, that the ſaid Borax and Camphire entered for Exportation, were produced ſolely from the very ſame Borax and Camphire which had been imported into Great Britain unrefined, and for which his Majeſty's Cuſtoms and Duties had been duly paid at the Time of the Importation thereof, and that the ſame were duly exported, his Majeſty's Searcher alſo certifying the ſhipping thereof, and all ſuch other Requiſites being duly performed, as are neceſſary to be done and performed, with regard to Borax and Camphire unrefined, and ſhipt for Exportation, ſhall be intitled unto and have the ſame Drawback of all the ſeveral Duties in all Reſpects, as a like Quantity of unrefined Borax and of unrefined Camphire, are now by Law intitled unto; any Statute, Law, Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Borax and Camphire refined in Great Britain, ſhall be intitled to the Drawback on Exportation.

'IV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament paſſed in the fifteenth and ſixteenth Years of the Reign of 'his preſent Majeſty King GEORGE the Second, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty an additional 'Duty on foreign Cambricks imported into Great Britain, and for allowing thereout a Bounty upon certain Species 'of Britiſh and Iriſh Linens exported, in order to prevent Britiſh and Iriſh Linens exceeding the Value 'of twelve Pence per Yard, being exported for the ſake of the Bounty allowed thereby, it is enacted, 'That the Collector and Comptroller, or other proper Officers of the Cuſtoms may open, view and ex- 'amine any or all ſuch Linens as ſhall be entered at the Value of twelve Pence per Yard or under, and 'compare the ſame with the Value and Price thereof ſworn to or affirmed in the Entry and Endorſement 'on the Cocquet; and if upon ſuch View and Examination it ſhall appear that ſuch Linen is of greater 'Value than twelve Pence per Yard, then and in ſuch Caſe the Exporter or Proprietor ſhall, on Demand 'made in Writing by the Cuſtomer or Collector, and Comptroller of the Port where ſuch Goods or Mer- 'chandizes are entered, deliver or cauſe to be delivered, all ſuch Goods and Merchandizes into his 'Majeſty's Warehouſe at the Port of Exportation, for the Uſe and Benefit of the Crown, and upon ſuch 'Delivery the Cuſtomer or Collector of ſuch Port, with the Privity of the Comptroller, ſhall out of any 'Money in the Hands of ſuch Cuſtomer or Collector, ariſing by Cuſtoms or other Duties belonging to

X. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Exchequer Bills as ſhall be made in purſuance of this Act, and the Intereſt, Premium, Rate, and Charges incident to, or attending the ſame, ſhall be and are hereby charged and chargeable upon and ſhall be repaid and borne by or out of the growing Produce of the ſaid Surpluſſes, Exceſſes, and Overplus Monies commonly called The Sinking Fund (except ſuch Monies of the ſaid Sinking Fund as are appropriated to any particular Uſe or Uſes by any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf); and ſuch Monies of the ſaid Sinking Fund ſhall and may be iſſued and applied, as faſt as the ſame can be regularly ſtated and aſcertained, for and towards paying off, cancelling, and diſcharging ſuch Exchequer Bills, Intereſt, Premium, Rate, or Charges, until the whole of them ſhall be paid off, cancelled, and diſcharged, or Money ſufficient for that Purpoſe be kept and reſerved in the Exchequer, to be payable on Demand to the reſpective Proprietors thereof.

CAP. XXXVI.

An Act for permitting certain Goods therein enumerated, to be imported during the War in Britiſh built Shipping, the Property of Foreigners; and for Relief of William Ord, and others, and for obviating a Doubt which hath ariſen upon the Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increaſing of Shipping and Navigation, as to the Importation on the Account of Aliens, of Goods of the Growth or Production of the Plantations of Spain and Portugal, in Engliſh Ships duly navigated.

12 Car. 2. c. 18. 'WHEREAS by a Clauſe in an Act of Parliament paſſed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increaſing of Shipping and Navigation, It is enacted, That no Goods or Commodities of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of Muſcovy, or of any the Countries, Dominions, or Territories to the Great Duke or Emperor of Muſcovy or Ruſſia belonging; as alſo that no Sorts of Maſts, Timber, or Boards, no foreign Salt, Pitch, Tar, Rozin, Hemp, or Flax, Raiſins, Figs, Prunes, Olive Oils, no Sort of Corn or Grain, Sugar, Pot-aſhes, Wines, Vinegar, or Spirits called Aqua Vitæ, or Brandy Wine, ſhould, from and after the firſt Day of April which was in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty-one, be imported into England, Ireland, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in any Ship or Ships, Veſſel or Veſſels whatſoever, but in ſuch as do truly, and without Fraud, belong to the People thereof, or ſome of them, as the true Owners and Proprietors thereof, and whereof the Maſter and three Fourths of the Mariners, at leaſt, are Engliſh; and that no Currans, nor Commodities of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of any of the Countries, Iſlands, Dominions, or Territories to the Othoman or Turkiſh Empire belonging, ſhould, from and after the firſt Day of September which was in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty-one, be imported into any the forementioned Places, in any Ship or Veſſel, but which is of Engliſh built, and navigated as aforeſaid, and in no other, except only ſuch foreign Ships and Veſſels, as are of the Built of that Country or Place of which the ſaid Goods are the

'Growth, Production, or Manufacture reſpectively, or of ſuch Port where the ſaid Goods can only be, 'or moſt uſually are, firſt ſhipped for Tranſportation, and whereof the Maſter and three Fourths of the 'Mariners, at leaſt, are of the ſaid Country or Place, under the Penalty and Forfeiture of Ship and Goods: 'And whereas the ſelling of Britiſh built Ships to Foreigners, is a beneficial Branch of Trade, and ought 'therefore to be encouraged; and it is highly reaſonable, that Britiſh Ships ſo ſold to, or being the Pro-'perty of Foreigners, ſhould enjoy the ſame Privilege in theſe Kingdoms, as if they were of the Built of 'the reſpective Countries or Places from whence ſuch Ships do come;' May it pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-four, and during the preſent Wars with France and Spain, or either of them, and no longer, the ſaid recited Clauſe in the ſaid Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to hinder or prevent any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever from importing into the Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, any of the Goods or Merchandizes mentioned and expreſſed in the aforeſaid Clauſe, in Shipping built in Great Britain, Ireland, the Iſlands of Guernſey or Jerſey, or in any the Iſlands, Dominions and Territories to his Majeſty, in Africa, Aſia, or America, belonging or in his Poſſeſſion, ſo as the Maſter and three Fourths of the Mariners at leaſt, belonging to and navigating any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, are Britiſh, or of the ſame Country or Place of which the ſaid Goods are the Growth, Production or Manufactures reſpectively, and not otherwiſe. EXP.

Liberty to import enumerated Goods in Britiſh Ships during the War.

II. Provided always, That all Goods and Merchandizes imported into Great Britain or Ireland, in Ships belonging to and the Property of Foreigners, altho' Britiſh built, ſhall pay Aliens and all other Duties, in the ſame Manner as if ſuch Ships were foreign built.

'III. And whereas a certain Ship or Veſſel Britiſh built, and called or known by the Name of The 'Saint John Baptiſt, Saint Paul, and Souls, Joſeph Lewis de Cabo, Maſter, and navigated with foreign 'Mariners, did ſince the firſt Day of February one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-three, arrive into 'this Kingdom, laden with ſome of the Goods and Merchandizes mentioned and expreſſed in the before 'recited Clauſe in the Act of the twelfth Year of King CHARLES the Second; which ſaid Goods and 'Merchandizes belong to, and are the Property of William Ord, Merrick Burrel, and John Raymond, of 'London, Merchants: And whereas the ſaid Owners of the ſaid Goods and Merchandizes are prevented 'from entering the ſame, on account of their being liable to the Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted there-'by;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid William Ord, Merick Burrell, and John Raymond, the Owners of the ſaid Goods imported ſince the firſt Day of February laſt, in the Ship Saint John Baptiſt, Saint Paul, and Souls aforeſaid, to enter and pay the Duties for the ſaid Goods and Merchandizes, without incurring any Penalties or Forfeitures whatſoever, for or by reaſon of the ſaid recited Clauſe; and that the ſaid Goods and Merchandizes ſo to be entered, or the ſaid Ship Saint John Baptiſt, Saint Paul, and Souls, in which they were imported, ſhall not be liable to any Seizure or Forfeiture on account of ſuch Importations being contrary to the ſaid before recited Clauſe.

William Ord, &c. may import the Goods arrived in the St. John Baptiſt.

'IV. And whereas by two other Clauſes in the aforeſaid Act paſſed in the twelfth Year of the Reign 'of King CHARLES the Second, it is (amongſt other Things) enacted, That no Goods or Commodities 'whatſoever, of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of Africa, Aſia or America, or any Part thereof, 'or which are deſcribed or laid down in the uſual Maps or Charts of thoſe Places, be imported into 'England, Ireland or Wales, Iſlands of Guernſey or Jerſey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from any 'other Place or Places, Country or Countries, but only from thoſe of the ſaid Growth, Production or 'Manufacture, or from thoſe Ports where the ſaid Goods and Commodities can only, or are or uſually 'have been firſt ſhipped for Tranſportation, and from none other Places or Countries, under the Penalty 'of the Forfeiture of all ſuch the aforeſaid Goods as ſhall be imported from any other Place or Country, 'contrary to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, as alſo of the Ship in which they were imported, with 'all her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel: And whereas there is a Proviſo in the 'ſaid Act, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any of the People of England, Ireland, Wales, 'Iſlands of Guernſey or Jerſey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in Veſſels or Ships to them belonging, 'and whereof the Maſter and three Fourths of the Mariners at leaſt are Engliſh, to load and bring in 'from any of the Ports of Spain or Portugal, or Weſtern Iſlands, commonly called Azores, or Madeira, 'or Canary Iſlands, all Sorts of Goods or Commodities of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of 'the Plantations or Dominions of either of them reſpectively: And whereas Diſputes have aroſe on the 'Conſtruction of the ſaid Proviſo, whether Goods of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of the 'Plantations of Spain or Portugal, may be imported for account of Aliens, from the Places and in the 'Manner expreſſed in the ſaid Proviſo, and whether ſuch Goods belonging to Aliens ſo imported, are 'not liable to be forfeited, together with the Ship; which tends to the Prejudice of the Britiſh Naviga-'tion, as likewiſe detrimental to the publick Revenue:' Be it therefore further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons to import the Goods mentioned in the ſaid Proviſo, and in ſuch Ships ſo navigated, as in the ſaid Proviſo is expreſſed, although ſuch Goods belong to and are the Property of Aliens.

In what Manner Goods the Property of Aliens may be imported.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall not extend or be conſtrued to extend to alter, repeal or make void all or any the Clauſes, Matters or Things contained in an Act of Parliament paſſed in the thirteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, for prohibiting Commerce with Spain; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

An Act for making the Surgeons of London and the Barbers of London two ſeparate and diſtinct Corporations.

Letters Patent of 1 Edw. IV. granted to Barber Surgeons.

'WHEREAS in and by certain Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of England, bearing Date 'the twenty-fourth Day of February in the firſt Year of the Reign of his then Majeſty King ED-'WARD the Fourth, after reciting, That the Freemen of the Myſtery of Barbers of the City of London, 'uſing the Myſtery or Faculty of Surgery, had for a long Time, exerciſed and ſuſtained, and ſtill conti-'nued to exerciſe and ſuſtain great Application and Labour, as well about the curing and healing 'Wounds, Blows and other Infirmities, as in the letting of Blood, and drawing of Teeth; and that by 'the Ignorance and Unſkilfulneſs of ſome of the ſaid Barbers, as well Freemen of the ſaid City as of others, 'being foreign Surgeons, many Misfortunes had happened to divers People, by the Unſkilfulneſs of ſuch 'Barbers and Surgeons, in healing and curing Wounds, Blows, Hurts and other Infirmities; and that 'it was to be feared, that the like or worſe evils might thereafter enſue, unleſs a ſuitable Remedy was 'ſpeedily provided in the Premiſſes; his ſaid then Majeſty did therefore, at the Supplication of the Free-'men of the ſaid Myſtery of Barbers, in the ſaid City of London, grant to them, amongſt other Things, 'that the ſaid Myſtery, and all the Men of the ſame Myſtery of the ſaid City, ſhould be one Body, and 'one perpetual Community; and that two Principals of the ſame Commonalty, of the moſt expert Men 'in the Myſtery of Surgery, might with the Aſſent of twelve, or eight Perſons at the leaſt, of the ſame 'Community, every Year elect and make out of the Community two Maſters or Governors, being the 'moſt expert in the Myſtery of Surgery, to overſee, rule and govern the Myſtery and Commonalty afore-'ſaid, and all Men of the ſame Myſtery and the Affairs of the ſame; and that the aforeſaid Maſters or 'Governors, and Commonalty, and their Succeſſors, might make Statutes and Ordinances for the Go-'vernment of the ſaid Myſteries; and that the Maſters or Governors for the Time being, and their Suc-'ceſſors, ſhould have the Survey, Search, Correction and Government of all the Freemen of the ſaid City,

'being Surgeons, using the Mystery of Barbers in the same City, and of other Surgeons whatsoever, being Foreigners, practising and using the Mystery of Surgery, within the same City and Suburbs of the same, and the Punishment of them, as well Freemen as Foreigners, for their Offences in not perfectly executing, performing and using that Mystery; and should also have the Survey and Search of all Manner of Instruments, Plaisters and other Medicines, and the Receipts to be given, applied and used by the said Barbers and Surgeons, for the curing and healing of Sores, Wounds, Hurts and such like Infirmities; and that no Barber using the said Mystery of Surgery, within the said City, or Suburbs thereof, or other foreign Surgeon whatsoever, should be in any Manner thereafter admitted to execute, perform and exercise the same Mystery of Surgery, unless he had first been approved of, as well instructed in that Mystery, by the said Masters or Governors, or their Successors, sufficiently qualified in that Behalf; and his said Majesty did further grant, that the said Masters or Governors and Commonalty of the said Mystery of Barbers, and their Successors nor any of them, should in any Manner thereafter be summoned or put upon any Assizes, Juries, Inquests, Inquisitions, Attaints or other Recognizances, to be taken within the said City and Suburbs thereof, before the Mayor or Sheriffs, or Coroners of the same City for the Time being, or summoned by any of his Officer or Officers, Minister or Ministers, although such Juries, Inquisitions, or Recognizances, should be summoned upon a Writ or Writs of Right; but that the said Masters or Governors, and Commonalty of the aforesaid Mystery, and their Successors, and every of them, should be thereof acquitted, and wholly discharged for ever; and his said then Majesty thereby further granted unto the aforesaid Masters or Governors, and Commonalty of the said Mystery of Barbers, and to their Successors the following Liberty; to wit, That they at all Times thereafter should and might admit Persons able and sufficiently learned and instructed in the said Mystery of Surgery, and by them approved of in Form, and presented to the Mayor of the said City for the Time being, and no other Persons, or in any other Manner, into the said Mystery of Barber Surgeons, and Liberty of the said City: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the thirty-second Year of the Reign of the late King HENRY the Eighth, intituled, For Barbers and Surgeons, after taking Notice that it was very expedient and needful to provide for Men expert in the Science of Physick and Surgery for the Health of Man's Body, when Infirmities and Sickness should happen; for the due Exercise and Maintenance whereof, good and necessary Acts had theretofore been made and provided, and that within the City of London, Men of great Experience, as well in Speculation as in Practice of the Science and Faculty of Surgery, were abiding and inhabiting, and had more commonly the daily Exercise and Experience of the same Science of Surgery than was had and used within any Parts of the Realm; and by Occasion thereof, many expert Persons were brought up under them as their Servants, Apprentices and others, who by the Exercise and diligent Information of their Masters, might exercise the said Science within divers other Parts of the Realm; to the great Relief, Comfort and Succour of much People, and to the Safegard of their bodily Health, Limbs and Lives; and reciting, That within the said City of London there were then two several and distinct Companies of Surgeons occupying and exercising the Science and Faculty of Surgery, the one Company being commonly called The Barbers of London, and the other Company called The Surgeons of London; and that the said Company of Barbers were incorporated to sue and be sued by the Name of Masters or Governors of the Mystery or Commonalty of the Barbers of London, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of King EDWARD the Fourth, dated the twenty-fourth Day of February in the first Year of his Reign, and which were confirmed by several subsequent Letters Patents in the said Act mentioned and referred to; and that the other Company, called The Surgeons, had not any manner of Corporation; and that the said two several and distinct Companies of Surgeons were necessary to be united and made one Body Corporate, to the Intent that by their Union and often Assembly together, the good and due Order, Exercise and Knowledge in the said Science or Faculty of Surgery, should be, as well in Speculation as in Practice, both to themselves and their Servants and Apprentices, and by their Learning and diligent and ripe Informations, more perfect, speedy and effectual; it was therefore enacted, That the said two several and distinct Companies of Surgeons, that is to say, both the Barbers and the Surgeons, and every Person of them, being a Freeman of either of the said Companies, after the Custom of the said City of London, and their Successors, should from thenceforth be immediately united and made one entire and whole Body Corporate, and one Commonalty perpetual, which at all Times thereafter should be called by the Name of Masters or Governors of the Mystery and Commonalty of Barbers and Surgeons of London, and by the same Name to implead and be impleaded before all Manner of Justices in all Courts, in all Manner of Actions and Suits; and also to purchase, enjoy and take to them and their Successors, Lands, Tenements, Rents and other Possessions whatsoever: And it was also thereby enacted, That they should have a Common Seal to serve for the Business of the said Company and Corporation; and that they should, by the same Name, peaceably, quietly and indefeazibly, have, possess and enjoy, to them and their Successors for ever, all such Lands and Tenements, and other Hereditaments whatsoever, which the said Company or Commonalty of Barbers then had and enjoyed, to the Use of the said Mystery and Commonalty of Barbers of London; and should also peaceably and quietly have and enjoy all and singular Benefits, Grants, Liberties, Privileges, Franchises and Free Customs, and also all Manner of other Things at any Time given or granted unto the said Companies of Barbers or Surgeons, by whatsoever Name or Names they or any of them were called, or which they or any of them, or any of their Predecessors, then or theretofore had by Acts of Parliament, Letters Patents or otherwise, by any lawful Means at any Time before the said Act, in as large and ample Manner and Form, as they or any of them, had, might or should enjoy the same, notwithstanding the said Union or Conjunction of the said Companies, and as if the same were and had been specially and particularly

CAP. XXVI.

An Act for repealing the present Inland Duty of four Shillings per Pound Weight upon all Tea sold in Great Britain, and for granting to his Majesty certain other Inland Duties in lieu thereof; and for better securing the Duty upon Tea, and other Duties of Excise; and for pursuing Offenders out of one County into another.

May it please Your most Excellent Majesty,

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First of glorious Memory (intituled, An Act for repealing certain Duties therein mentioned, payable upon Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, and Cocoa Paste imported, and for granting certain Inland Duties in lieu thereof; and for prohibiting the Importation of Chocolate ready made, and Cocoa Paste; and for better ascertaining the Duties payable upon Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa Nuts imported; and for granting Relief to Robert Dalzell late Earl of Carnwath) an Inland Duty, after the Rate of four Shillings per Pound Weight Averdupois, and in that Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, was imposed and charged upon all Tea to be sold in Great Britain, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, over and above all Customs, Subsidies and Duties, which should then remain payable to his Majesty for the same, upon Importation thereof, to be paid in Manner as in the said Act is directed: And whereas great Frauds and Abuses have been committed by the clandestine Importation of Tea from Parts beyond the Seas, as also by fraudulent relanding thereof (after the same hath been exported from this Kingdom to foreign Parts, and the Duties thereupon drawn back) without paying any Duties for such Tea, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the several Acts of Parliament relating to the said Duties, and to the manifest Prejudice of the fair Traders in the said Commodity:' For Remedy whereof, and for the greater Discouragement of the pernicious and illegal Practices of unlawfully importing and clandestinely running and landing of Tea, and also for the more effectual securing to your Majesty a Revenue to arise by the Duties thereupon; We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and forty-five, the Inland Duty of four Shillings per Pound upon Tea, granted by the before recited Act of the tenth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, shall cease, determine, and be no longer paid or payable; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. 10 Geo. 1. c. 10. Duty of 4s. per lb. on Tea, by 10 Geo. 1. c. 10. to cease.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and forty-five, in lieu of the said Duty by this Act repealed as aforesaid, the Inland Duties herein after mentioned shall be and are by this Act charged upon all Tea, which shall from thenceforth be sold in Great Britain, in Manner herein after mentioned; (that is to say) one Shilling per Pound Weight Averdupois, and in that Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, and also a further Duty of twenty-five Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of the gross Price at which such Tea 1s. per lb. and 25l. per Centum on the Price on all Teas sold by the East India Company;

Tea ſhall be ſold at the publick Sales of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, and proportionably for a greater or leſſer Sum, over and above all Cuſtoms, Subſidies, and Duties payable to his Majeſty for the ſame upon the Importation thereof; which ſaid ſeveral Duties of one Shilling per Pound Weight, and twenty-five Pounds per Centum, ſhall be paid down in ready Money by the Proprietor or Proprietors of ſuch Tea, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be appointed by him, her or them, to the Receiver or Collector of the ſaid Inland Duties, before ſuch Proprietor or Proprietors, or other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall receive or take out, for any Purpoſe whatſoever, ſuch Tea from the Warehouſe or Warehouſes, wherein the ſame is appointed to be lodged by the before recited Act of the tenth Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, according to the Directions of the ſaid Act concerning Tea taken out of ſuch Warehouſe or Warehouſes.

When to be paid.

Commiſſioners appointed in purſuance of 20 Geo. 1. c. 10. ſhall be Commiſſioners for the Duties by this Act; with like Powers, &c.

III. And for the better aſcertaining, charging, collecting, levying, raiſing, paying, and ſecuring the ſeveral Rates and Duties by this Act impoſed, and for preventing Frauds concerning the ſame; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Commiſſioners, or Perſons as now are appointed, or hereafter ſhall be appointed, in purſuance of the ſaid Act of the tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt, ſhall be his Majeſty's Commiſſioners for the Receipt and Management of the ſaid Inland Duties by this Act charged and impoſed upon Tea as aforeſaid, and that all and every the Powers, Authorities, Directions, Rules, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters and Things (not otherwiſe altered by this Act) which in and by the ſaid recited Act are provided, ſettled, or eſtabliſhed, for raiſing, levying, collecting, paying, recovering, adjudging, or aſcertaining the ſaid Duty of four Shillings per Pound Weight upon Tea thereby granted, or by any other Act concerning the Duty upon Tea, ſhall be exerciſed, practiſed, applied, uſed, levied, recovered, and put in Execution, for the raiſing, levying, collecting, recovering, and paying the Duties by this Act granted, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if all and every the ſaid Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters and Things, were particularly repeated, and again enacted, in the Body of this preſent Act; any Thing in this or any former Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Duties appropriated to the ſame Uſes as the 4 s. per lb.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five, all Monies ariſing by the ſaid Inland Duties by this Act charged and impoſed, ſhall be appropriated, iſſued and applied, and the ſame are hereby appropriated and made payable to the ſame Uſes, Intents and Purpoſes, as the Duty of four Shillings per Pound upon Tea was appropriated and made applicable, by the ſaid Act of the tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt, and ſhall be alſo ſubject and liable to the ſame Redemption by Parliament, as the ſaid Duty of four Shillings per Pound was by the ſaid Act ſubject and liable unto.

No Drawback for Tea exported,

'V. And whereas by ſeveral Acts of Parliament now in Force, ſeveral Drawbacks or Allowances are 'directed to be paid upon the Exportation of Tea, which have tempted many Exporters thereof to com-'mit great Frauds and Abuſes, to the Prejudice of his Majeſty's Revenue, and the fair Traders:' For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Drawback whatſoever ſhall be allowed or paid for any Tea which ſhall be exported, or ſhipped to be exported at any Time or Times after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five, and that no Debenture or Certificate ſhall be granted or made forth, for or in order to the Repayment or drawing back of the Duties upon any ſuch Tea ſo exported, or ſhipped to be exported, after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five, but ſuch Drawback or Repayment ſhall from thenceforth ceaſe, determine, and be no longer paid; any Law, Statute or Proviſion to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Means to prevent Diſputes touching the Price.

VI. And for the preventing any Diſputes that may ariſe touching the Price at which Teas ſhall be ſold at the publick Sales of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners who are or ſhall be appointed for the Management of the ſaid Inland Duties, or the major Part of them for the Time being, ſhall have

Officers to attend the Sales of Tea, and report the Price on Oath;

Power to conſtitute, under their Hands and Seals, ſuch and ſo many Officers as they ſhall find needful for attending the ſaid publick Sales, and take an Account of the Names of the ſeveral Buyers, and Price at which each and every Lot of Tea ſhall be ſold, and ſhall thereof make Returns or Reports in Writing, upon Oath, to the ſaid Commiſſioners; and from ſuch Reports or Returns the Charge of the ſaid Duty of twenty-five Pounds per Centum upon the groſs Price of Tea impoſed by this Act ſhall be ſettled and aſcertained: And for the preventing Miſtakes, and better regulating ſuch Charge, it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Officer or Officers, at any Time or Times, upon Requeſt made to the Court of Directors of the ſaid Company, to inſpect all and every ſuch Book or Books as ſhall be appointed and kept for taking an Account, in Behalf of the ſaid Company, of the particular Price and Prices that Tea ſhall from time to time be ſold for at their ſeveral publick Sales; which Book or Books the ſaid Court of Directors is hereby required, from time to time, to produce to ſuch Officer or Officers ſo demanding the ſame.

may inſpect the Company's Books,

'VII. And whereas many Perſons do frequently, at Sales for Tea, by the ſaid United Company, bid 'for, and are declared beſt Bidders, for large Quantities of Tea, without intending or being able to 'pay for the ſame, unleſs ſuch Tea ſhould after ſuch Sales riſe in Price, by Means whereof, the Prices 'of Tea are frequently raiſed, and the Running of Tea will be ſtill encouraged;' For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon who ſhall at any publick Sale of Tea, made by the ſaid United Company, be declared to be the beſt Bidder or Bidders for any Lot or Lots of Tea, ſhall within three Days after being ſo declared the beſt Bidder or Bidders for the ſame, depoſit with the

Beſt Bidder to depoſit 40 s. for every Tub and Cheſt, in three Days;

ſaid United Company, or ſuch Clerk or Officer as the ſaid Company ſhall appoint to receive the ſame, forty Shillings for every Tub, and for every Cheſt of Tea; and in caſe any ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall refuſe or neglect to make ſuch Depoſit within the Time before limited, he, ſhe or they ſhall forfeit and loſe ſix Times the Value of ſuch Depoſit, directed to be made as aforeſaid, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed; one Moiety of which Forfeiture ſhall go to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon as ſhall ſue or proſecute for the ſame; and the Sale of all Teas, for which ſuch Depoſit ſhall be neglected to be made as aforeſaid, is hereby declared to be null and void; and all ſuch Teas ſhall be again put up by the ſaid United Company to publick Sale, within fourteen Days after the End of the Sale of Teas, at which ſuch Teas were ſold; and all and every Buyer or Buyers, who ſhall have neglected to make ſuch Depoſit as aforeſaid, ſhall be, and is and are hereby rendered incapable of bidding for, or buying any Teas at any future publick Sale of the ſaid United Company.

or forfeit ſix Times the Value of ſaid Depoſit.

The Teas to be put up again in 14 Days.

'VIII. And whereas the ſeveral Dealers in Tea, and other Traders, ſubject to the Survey of the Officers appointed by the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, are required by the Laws concerning the Duties of Exciſes and other Duties under the Management of the ſaid Commiſſioners, to make true and particular Entries of Shops, Warehouſes, Rooms, Places and Utenſils, by them made uſe of for carrying on their reſpective Trades; and whereas many Perſons, in order to avoid ſuch Penalties as they may incur by Offences committed againſt the ſaid Laws, have of late frequently made, or procured to be made, ſuch Entries in fictitious Names, or in the Names of mean and obſcure Perſons, of little or no Ability or Subſtance, and who have little or no Intereſt or Property in the Stock of ſuch Trades; and whereas many ſuch Traders, being the real Proprietors and Owners of ſuch Shops, and other Places, and who generally attend in ſuch Shops, and carry on their reſpective Trades there, pretend to be only Servants or Managers to ſuch fictitious or obſcure Perſons, and do refuſe to diſcover the Places of Reſidence of ſuch Perſons, in whoſe Names ſuch Entries have been made; whereby great Frauds paſs unpuniſhed;' For Remedy whereof, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five, any Entry now made, or hereafter to be made, of any Shop, Warehouſe, Room, Place or Utenſil, to be made uſe of for carrying on any the Trade or Trades aforeſaid, ſhall not be deemed or taken to be a legal Entry, unleſs the ſame be made in the Name of the true and real Owner or Owners of, and Trader and Traders in ſuch Shop or Place; and that the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall act as viſible Owner, Occupier or Proprietor, Owners, Occupiers or Proprietors of any ſuch Shop or Place whatſoever, or principal Manager or Managers in the carrying on ſuch Trade there, ſhall be deemed and taken to be the real Owner and Trader, Owners and Traders, and ſhall be ſubject and liable, as ſuch, to all Duties, Penalties and Forfeitures, impoſed by any Act relating to the Duties of Exciſe, or any other Duty under the Management of the ſaid Commiſſioners, for or by reaſon of any Stock, Goods or Commodities made, kept, or found there, or for not making true and particular Entries of ſuch Shops, Places, or Utenſils, according to Law, or for any other Offences committed, or that ſhall be committed by the Owners, Traders, Dealers in, or Makers of any ſuch Goods or Commodities of, at or in ſuch Shops or Places; and that all Stock, Goods, Commodities and Utenſils, which ſhall be found in or upon ſuch Shops or Places, ſhall be ſubject to, and charged with all ſuch Duties, Penalties and Forfeitures.

Means to prevent Frauds by fictitious Names.

Perſon acting as Owner, deemed the real Owner.

Goods, &c. found in Places of Trade, ſubject.

'IX. And whereas ſeveral Quantities of Tea, which have already been, or may be ſold at the publick Sales by the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, may happen to be and remain on the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five, in ſome one or more of the Warehouſes, appointed in purſuance of the ſaid Act of the tenth Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt; It is therefore provided, enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Teas which have been ſold, or ſhall be ſold before the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five, and which nevertheleſs ſhall remain and be found in ſuch Warehouſe or Warehouſes on the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five, ſhall be liable to, and be charged with the aforeſaid Duties of one Shilling per Pound Weight, and twenty-five Pounds per Centum upon the groſs Price of all Teas taken out of ſuch Warehouſe or Warehouſes; and for aſcertaining and adjuſting the ſaid Duty of twenty-five Pounds per Centum on the groſs Price, the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, ſhall and are hereby required to lay before the ſaid Commiſſioners, for the ſaid Inland Duties by this Act granted, a Liſt of the Names of the Perſons to whom the Teas, remaining in any ſuch Warehouſe or Warehouſes on the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five, were ſold, together with the Prices at which the ſame were ſold at the ſaid Company's publick Sale; and the ſaid United Company are hereby alſo required to permit the Officer or Officers for the Duties by this Act granted, who ſhall be appointed to attend the publick Sales of the ſaid United Company as aforeſaid, upon Requeſt to the Court of Directors of the ſaid Company, to inſpect all and every their Book and Books, containing the Names of the ſeveral Perſons, to whom any Tea remaining in any ſuch Warehouſe on the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five, were ſold, and the particular Price or Prices at which the ſame were ſold; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

10 Geo. 1. c. 10.

Teas ſold, and remaining in the Warehouſes, liable.

Means of aſcertaining the Duty of 25 l. per Cent.

'X. And whereas it may happen, that the Tea imported by the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, may not always be ſufficient to anſwer the Conſumption thereof in Great Britain, and to keep the Price of Tea in this Kingdom upon an Equality with the Price thereof in other the neighbouring Countries of Europe;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid,

East India Company may import Tea from any Parts of Europe, subject to the Duties,

That in every such Case, it shall and may be lawful for the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and their Successors, to import into Great Britain, in British Ships navigated according to Law, such Quantities of Tea as they shall think necessary from any Parts of Europe, subject to the several Duties payable for Tea consumed in Great Britain, and also to the same Rules, Methods and Directions, as are prescribed and given with respect to Tea imported by them from the East Indies, so as Notice be first given to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, of the Quantity of Tea so intended to be imported, with the Name of the Company neglecting to supply the Market;

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, shall at any Time neglect to keep this Market supplied with a sufficient Quantity of Tea, at reasonable Prices, to answer the Consumption thereof in Great Britain, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, Licences may be granted to others.

or any three or more of them, or the said High Treasurer for the Time being, to grant Licences to any other Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, to import Tea into Great Britain, from any Parts of Europe, in such and the like Manner, and subject to such Duties, and under such Restrictions and Limitations, and upon such Notices, and with such Licences, as are herein before prescribed and directed, with respect to Tea to be imported from any Parts of Europe, by the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies; any Thing in this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Tea imported from any Parts of Europe, shall pay the Subsidies, &c.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and forty-five, all Tea imported into Great Britain, from any Parts of Europe, by the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or by any other Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate (to be licensed as aforesaid) shall be entered at the Custom-house, and shall pay or secure the several Subsidies and additional Impositions, now chargeable upon all Tea imported by the said Company from the East Indies; and all Tea so to be imported by the said United Company, from any Parts of Europe as aforesaid, shall be forthwith and the ſaid Chriſtian Cole did thereupon agree to pay the Purchaſe Money for the ſaid 'Eſtate, according to the ſaid Conditions of the Sale thereof; and the ſaid Governor and Company, or 'ſome of their Officers or Agents, was or were ſoon after put into the Poſſeſſion of, and in the Receipt 'of the Rents and Profits of the ſaid Eſtates; and the ſaid Chriſtian Cole ſigned a Declaration of Truſt 'on the Back of the ſaid Contract, declaring that the Purchaſe therein mentioned to be made by him, 'was ſo made by him for and upon the Account of, and as Agent for the ſaid Governor and Company; 'and that the Money paid on Account of the ſaid Purchaſe, was the proper Money of the ſaid Governor 'and Company, and thereby deſired and authorized the Truſtees appointed for that Purpoſe, to convey 'to the ſaid Governor and Company, and their Succeſſors, the Lands and Hereditaments ſo by him pur-'chaſed: And whereas the ſaid Governor and Company, in purſuance of the ſaid Conditions of Sale, 'paid on Account of the ſaid Sale, into the Receipt of his ſaid late Majeſty's Exchequer at Weſtminſter, 'on the twenty-fifth of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty, the Sum of eleven thouſand five 'hundred and fifty-ſix Pounds one Shilling and eleven Pence, being one fifth Part of the ſaid Purchaſe 'Money and Intereſt then accrued due for the ſame: And whereas the ſaid whole Sum of fifty-ſeven 'thouſand one hundred Pounds ſo contracted, and agreed to be paid for the Purchaſe of the Premiſſes, 'was not paid on the twenty-ninth Day of September one thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty, purſuant 'and according to the Terms of the ſaid Contract, but ſeveral conſiderable Sums of Money have ſince and for Relief in the Premiſſes, the Commons of Great Bri-'tain, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, have taken their Caſe into Conſideration, and have thought 'it juſt and reaſonable, that the ſaid Sum of five thouſand one hundred twenty-ſeven Pounds fourteen 'Shillings and two Pence, being the principal Money remaining due for the Purchaſe of the late Lord 'Widdrington's Eſtate, in the County of Northumberland, contracted for by the York Buildings Com-'pany, ſhould be accepted in full Diſcharge of the Purchaſe Money for that Eſtate, and that the ſur-'viving Commiſſioners and Truſtees for the forfeited Eſtates ſhould be authorized and impowered to 'execute proper Conveyances of the ſaid Eſtate to the Truſtees for the Creditors of the ſaid Company, 'upon Payment of the ſaid Sum into his Majeſty's Exchequer:' Wherefore we your Majeſty's moſt du-tiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons in Parliament aſſembled, moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty, That it may be enacted, &c.

'WHEREAS by Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the ſixteenth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for repealing the ſeveral Rates and Duties upon Victuallers and Retailers of Beer and Ale within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the weekly Bills of Mortality; and for transferring the Exchequer Bills unſatisfied thereupon to the Duties for Licences to ſell Spirituous Liquors and Strong Waters by Retail; and alſo for enabling his Majeſty to raiſe a certain Sum of Money for the Service of the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-three, to be further charged on the ſaid Duties for Licences; it was (amongſt other Things) enacted, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-three, the ſeveral Rates and Duties impoſed by an Act of twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt, upon all Victuallers and Retailers of Beer and Ale within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the weekly Bills of Mortality, ſhould from thenceforth ceaſe, determine, and be no longer paid or payable; and it was thereby alſo enacted, That from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-three, the principal Sum of four hundred eighty-one thouſand four hundred Pounds in Exchequer Bills (Part of the Sum of five hundred thouſand Pounds advanced and lent into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, upon the Credit of the ſaid Rates and Duties, at an Intereſt after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum) made forth in purſuance of the ſaid Act of twelfth Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, which then remained unſatisfied and undiſcharged, together with the Intereſt thereupon, and the Charges of circulating the ſame, ſhould be transferred from the ſaid Rates and Duties then charged with the ſame, and be charged (together with the Sum of five hundred and eighteen thouſand ſix hundred Pounds, directed to be raiſed by the before recited Act of the ſixteenth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, towards the Supply for the ſaid Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-three) upon the Duties granted and made payable to his Majeſty, by virtue of another Act of Parliament paſſed in the ſaid ſixteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for repealing certain Duties upon Spirituous Liquors, and on Licences for retailing the ſame; and for laying other Duties on Spirituous Liquors, and on Licences to Retail the ſaid Liquors; as in and by the ſaid Act, Relation being thereunto had, may more fully appear: And whereas, in purſuance of the ſaid firſt herein recited Act of the ſaid ſixteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, the ſaid Sum of four hundred eighty-one thouſand four hundred Pounds in Exchequer Bills; as alſo the ſaid further Sum of five hundred and eighteen thouſand ſix hundred Pounds, amounting together to the principal Sum of one million, were charged upon the ſaid Duties ariſing by Licences as aforeſaid, at an Intereſt after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum; which ſaid Exchequer Bills, by paying off Part of the ſaid principal Sum, do now amount to no more than the principal Sum of nine hundred and eighty-ſix thouſand eight hundred Pounds: And whereas the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England are willing and contented, that the ſaid Sum of nine hundred and eighty-ſix thouſand eight hundred Pounds in Exchequer Bills, remaining unſatisfied on the ſaid Duties payable for Licences to ſell Spirituous Liquors by Retail, may be cancelled and diſcharged, and in lieu thereof to accept of an Annuity of thirty-nine thouſand four hundred and ſeventy-two Pounds, being the Intereſt on the ſaid Sum at the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be charged upon the ſame Securities; and the ſaid Governor and Company are alſo willing to advance and pay into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, towards the Supply granted to his Majeſty for the Service of the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-ſix, the Sum of one million, upon the Credit of the Rates, Duties and Aſſeſſments ariſing by the Malt and Land Tax granted for the Service of the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-ſix, at four Pounds per Centum per Annum, for Exchequer Bills to be iſſued for that Purpoſe; provided that they may have a Power to create and diſpoſe of the ſaid Sum of nine hundred and eighty-ſix thouſand eight hundred Pounds of Bank Stock (to be joined and incorporated with their preſent Capital) in ſuch Manner, and at ſuch Times, as they ſhall think proper, with ſuch further Powers, Privileges and Advantages, as have been uſually granted by former Acts of Parliament on the like Occaſions:' Now we, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament aſſembled, thinking it will be of Advantage to the Publick, to accept the Propoſal of the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and in lieu of the ſaid Sum of nine hundred and eighty-ſix thouſand eight hundred Pounds in Exchequer Bills, to be cancelled as aforeſaid, to give and grant unto the ſaid Governor and Company a certain Annuity or yearly Sum herein after mentioned, do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or their Succeſſors, ſhall, and they are hereby required, on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-ſix, to deliver up unto ſuch Perſon or Perſons as the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or any three or more of them now being, or the High

And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid yearly Fund, or Sum of thirty-nine thouſand four hundred and ſeventy-two Pounds, is, and ſhall by virtue of this Act, be charged and chargeable upon, and ſhall be paid and payable from Time to Time, in the firſt Place, and with Preference to all other Payments whatſoever, out of the Monies which ſhall ariſe into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, of or for the Duties payable to his Majeſty, for Licences to ſell Spirituous Liquors, and Strong Waters by Retail, in purſuance of the before recited Act of the ſixteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign; any thing in this or any former Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

VI. And for the better and more regular Payment of the ſaid Annuity of thirty-nine thouſand four hundred and ſeventy-two Pounds to the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Succeſſors for ever, ſubject to the Redemption aforeſaid, an Order or Orders ſhall be ſigned by the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury now, or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treaſurer for the Time being, for the Payment thereof; and after ſigning thereof, the ſame ſhall be good, valid and effectual in the Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof, and of this Act, and ſhall not be determinable by or upon the Death or Removal of any of the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or the Lord High Treaſurer, or by or upon the Determination of the Power, Office or Offices of them, or any of them; nor ſhall any Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or Lord High Treaſurer now or for the Time being, have Power to revoke, countermand, or make void ſuch Order or Orders ſo ſigned as aforeſaid.

And for the more ſpeedy Payment of the ſaid Annuity, or yearly Sum of thirty-nine thouſand four hundred and ſeventy-two Pounds, to the ſaid Governor and Company as aforeſaid; it is hereby declared and enacted, That weekly or otherwiſe, as the Money of the ſaid Duties ſhall from Time to Time be brought into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, the ſame ſhall and may be iſſued upon the ſaid Order or Orders, for or towards diſcharging the ſaid Annuity, to grow due for and at the End of the Quarter in which ſuch Payment ſhall be made, ſo as ſuch weekly or other Payments, do not exceed the Sum of the quarterly Payment, which ſhould grow due for or at the End of every ſuch Quarter reſpectively.

The Annuity to be perſonal Eſtate.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, That the ſaid Annuity of thirty-nine thouſand four hundred and ſeventy-two Pounds, and every Part thereof, ſhall be adjudged to be a perſonal and not a real Eſtate, and ſhall not be liable to any foreign Attachment; any Law or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

If the Monies ariſing by the Licences, be inſufficient for the quarterly Payments,

IX. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if at any Time or Times, after the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-ſix, the Produce of the ſaid Duties ariſing by Licences as aforeſaid, ſhall be ſo low or deficient, as that the Monies ariſen therefrom into the Exchequer at the End of any of the ſaid quarterly Feaſts, ſhall not be ſufficient to pay and diſcharge the Quarter's Annuity, then due and payable according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act; then, and ſo often, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Deficiency of any ſuch Quarter ſhall and may be ſupplied out of the Overplus Monies of the ſaid Duties ariſing in any ſubſequent Quarter; and in caſe at any Time or Times after the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-ſix, ſuch Produce ſhall be ſo low or deficient at the End of any one Year (computing the ſame to end at Lady-day yearly) as that the ſame ſhall not be ſufficient to pay and diſcharge the whole Years Annuity then grown due, then every ſuch yearly Deficiency ſhall, from time to time, be anſwered and made good by and out of the firſt Supplies, which ſhall be granted in Parliament next after ſuch Deficiency ſhall appear; and in caſe no ſuch Supplies ſhall be granted within ſix Months next after ſuch Deficiency ſhall happen, then the ſame ſhall be made good out of any the Monies which at any Time or Times ſhall be and remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer, of the Surpluſſes, Exceſſes, or Overplus Monies, commonly called The Sinking Fund (except ſuch Monies of the ſaid Sinking Fund, as are appropriated to any particular Uſe or Uſes by any former Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf) and ſuch Monies of the ſaid Sinking Fund ſhall and may be from time to time iſſued and applied accordingly.

'WHEREAS it hath been found by Experience, that the making Aſſurances, Intereſt or no Intereſt, or without further Proof of Intereſt than the Policy, hath been productive of many pernicious Practices, whereby great Numbers of Ships, with their Cargoes, have either been fraudulently loſt and deſtroyed, or taken by the Enemy in Time of War; and ſuch Aſſurances have encouraged the Exportation of Wooll, and the carrying on many other prohibited and clandeſtine Trades, which by Means of ſuch Aſſurances have been concealed, and the Parties concerned ſecured from Loſs, as well to the Diminution of the publick Revenue, as to the great Detriment of fair Traders; and by introducing a miſchievous kind of Gaming or Wagering, under the Pretence of aſſuring the Riſque on Shipping, and fair Trade, the Inſtitution and laudable Deſign of making Aſſurances, hath been perverted; and that which was intended for the Encouragement of Trade and Navigation, has, in many Inſtances, become hurtful of, and deſtructive to the ſame: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-ſix, no Aſſurance or Aſſurances ſhall be made by any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Corporate or Politick, on any Ship or Ships belonging to his Majeſty, or any of his Subjects, or on any Goods, Merchandizes or Effects laden or to be laden on Board of any ſuch Ship or Ships, Intereſt or no Intereſt, or without further Proof of Intereſt than the Policy, or by way of Gaming or Wagering, or without Benefit of Salvage to the Aſſurer; and that every ſuch Aſſurance ſhall be null and void to all Intents and Purpoſes.
